

GREEN GIFT FOR THE LADIES ON YOUR LIST

Do you know a lady who likes to look great and live organically? Then you simply must get her the “You Know You’re a Glam-Granola Girl If...” gift book. The spirited piece speaks directly to this ever expanding group of women through fun and smart excerpts celebrating their stylish, and sometimes eccentric, holistic lifestyle.

With everything and everyone going green at the moment, here’s a treat that celebrates the glamorously eco world; both the originals and the newcomers.

“The Glam-Granola way is not simply a phase”, says Roy. “It’s how many of us have lived our lives from the latest organic foods and beauty, being mindful, volunteering... And if more ladies jump on board with us then I say bring it on. Taking care of one’s self, people, and planet is surely a trend worth promoting & celebrating.”

The gift book is available through select shopping venues and at a discount through the official Glam-Granola website, www.glamgranola.com.
